

Thanks for You

A TruckRight Presentation

In a cab, on a road, down a long highway line,
With a load in the back and a deadline to time,
You roll through the sunrise. You drive through the night.
You keep the world moving. You get it done right.

You haul it through rain, through wind, snow, or sleet,
With grit in your soul and a heart that won't quit.
From dry vans to flatbeds, from reefers to rigs,
You carry the world on those long, tiring gigs.

You miss birthdays and ballgames and sometimes a meal,
So shelves can stay stocked and the wheels can still wheel.
You're more than a driver—you're part of the glue
That holds up this country. And we're proud of you.

At TruckRight, we see you. We know what it takes.
The long lonely miles. The days with no breaks.
And so, once a year (but we mean it all through),
We say loud and proud that we're so proud of you!

For every bad backache and traffic delay,
For every small town you pass on the way,
For the wait times, the weigh-ins, the miles you pursue,
We tip our hats, drivers. And we salute you.

So here's to the heroes behind every load,
The kings and the queens of the long open road.
We're grateful, we're cheering, and we're being quite true,
When we say now from TruckRight:

Thanks for you...
and all that you do.
